

Level One Foundations Course
Module 4 Quiz
CUSTOMS & COURTESIES

1. Members of any group are expected to conform to the
 - a. custom and mores of the group
 - b. habits and customs of the group
 - c. expectations and peer dynamics of the group
 - d. group behavior and philosophy of the group
2. Customs and courtesies are really
 - a. practices enforceable by law
 - b. actions governed by the Uniform Code of Military Justice
 - c. proven traditions
 - d. habits
3. One of the unique features of belonging to CAP is
 - a. being distinct from all other similar organizations
 - b. using a one-or-a-kind rank structure
 - c. having the freedom of self paced progression
 - d. following a rank structure similar to the Air Force
4. The military salute is really
 - a. a military way to acknowledge accomplishment
 - b. rendered by demand
 - c. sign of subservience
 - d. a way to say "hello"
5. Upon hearing "Ruffles and Flourishes" outdoors and in the Air Force style uniform, you should
 - a. come to attention
 - b. face the person being honored
 - c. present arms
 - d. all of the above

6. When indoors, always salute
 - a. upon hearing the national anthem
 - b. when encountering a senior officer
 - c. when reporting to a senior officer
 - d. when a senior officer salutes you
7. When you are outside and "Retreat" sounds, you should
 - a. face the flag
 - b. come to attention
 - c. salute only when in uniform
 - d. do all the above
8. When in uniform indoors, the U S Flag is
 - a. always saluted
 - b. saluted when music is playing
 - c. never saluted
 - d. saluted regardless of music
9. On the command "Present Arms"
 - a. come to attention and salute
 - b. remain at parade rest and salute
 - c. remain "at ease" but always salute
 - d. no matter what position, always salute
10. While at parade rest, you are permitted to
 - a. make adjustments to your uniform
 - b. converse with other group members
 - c. adjust spacing to prepare for drill
 - d. keep head and eyes forward, but remain immobile